costa blanca lawyers

FOLLOWING their vision of the needs of the English community on the Costa Blanca, a unique legal service is being provided by English group Costa Blanca Lawyers. Whether it's legal work in Spain or England it can all be done right here on your doorstep.

The company deals with all types of law, including English and Spanish Wills, buying and selling property whether it is in England or Spain, Estate Transfer and divorce in Spain and England. Interestingly, they specialise in providing advice for unmarried and same sex couples who are particularly vulnerable in Spain where the obligatory succession laws are intended to keep assets within the family. As a result of the differences in laws between the two countries, inheritance tax issues and estate planning form a large part of their work. The service includes swearing of documents and Affidavits while English notarising of documents is done through a speedy and efficient service with one of their English partners.

Costa Blanca Lawyers have a huge support network which enables them to draw on a wide range of resources to ensure that the client receives the best possible service no matter what the subject. Their friendly and professional team welcomes everyone, they don't use legal jargon and the first consultation is free!

To enhance the services available, Costa Blanca Lawyers hold regular seminars in varying locations where people can come along, listen to what they have to say and ask whatever questions they may have – the team are there to give answers. They visit clubs and societies or just groups of people who want to know the law whatever the subject. It's not surprising that the demand for their work is leading to expansion - having already established themselves along the coast from Gandia to Torrevieja, they are now looking to open two further offices inland to cater for the many English people moving there. What makes Costa Blanca Lawyers different is that the advice is in plain English and the client gets all the information they need to make an informed choice. They check all documentation whether in English or Spanish and they do not accept verbal information from third parties – everything is checked for the benefit of the client.

It costs nothing to phone or visit them - whatever your legal query or problem they will be happy to give you the answer. So pop in for a chat at the offices in Alfaz del Pi or call 966 814 506 or visit www.costablancalawyers.com
